

Application Documents for ASJA Scholarship Program

- Please submit all of the following documents to ASJA Secretariat by the deadline date to apply for ASJA Scholarship Program.
- Application form and required documents for ASJA Scholarship
 - Refer to the detailed information below.
- Other required documents
 - Refer to the detailed information below.
 - Please be sure that the applicants for Category A1, B1 & C submit the application documents for Tokyo Japanese Language Education Center (former Kokusai Gakuyukai) with the application documents for ASJA Scholarship.
 - Please write your name and nationality on the back side of each photograph.
- Cover letter for ASJA Scholarship (The form of ASJA International)
 - Please use the form of ASJA International, or mention all the required items.

1. Required documents for ASJA Scholarship

- Category A1 & A2:

- (a) An application form for ASJA scholarship (with one (1) photograph)
- (b) A scholarly performance certificate acknowledged by the university the applicant is now attending, or a scholarly achievement certificate acknowledged by the university from which he/she graduated
- (c) The diploma or certificate of the university that the applicant is attending, or from which he/she graduated most recently.
- (d) The summary of the research project the applicant wishes to pursue
- (e) A letter of recommendation issued by a faculty professor of the university that the applicant is now attending, or from which he/she has graduated most recently
- (f) (only applicants for Category A2) The written permission by the faculty of the university that the applicant has been notified of his/her admission to enroll in April of the following year of selection
- (g) A medical certificate (made out in the format of the Japanese governmental foreign students scholarship requirement)
- (h) Other documents as required by the Selection Committee
- (i) (only applicants for Category A2) The certificate of the Japanese language ability by an authoritative Japanese language institution (for instance, Level 1 in the Japanese-Language Proficiency Test by the Japan Foundation) and/or a scholarly performance certificate acknowledged by a Japanese institute the applicant has attended

- Category B1 & B2:

- (a) An application form for ASJA scholarship (with one (1) photograph)
- (b) A scholarly achievement certificate acknowledged by the institute or university, from which he/she graduated, in his/her particular field of study
- (c) The diploma or certificate of the institute or university that the applicant is attending or from which he/she graduated most recently
- (d) The summary of the specialization for professional skill the applicant wishes to pursue
- (e) The name(s) of the institute in Japan, in which the applicant would like to take a course for professional skill, and preferably notification of admission from the institute
- (f) A letter of recommendation issued by a faculty member of the institute or university that the

- applicant is now attending, or from which he/she has graduated most recently
- (g) A medical certificate (made out in the format of the Japanese governmental foreign student scholarship requirement)
 - (h) Other documents as required by the Selection Committee
 - (i) (only applicants for Category B2) The certificate of the Japanese ability by an authoritative Japanese language institution (for instance, Level 1 in the Japanese-Language Proficiency Test by the Japan Foundation) and/or a scholarly performance certificate acknowledged by a Japanese institute the applicant has attended

- Category C:

- (a) An application form for ASJA scholarship(with one (1) photograph)
- (b) A scholarly performance certificate acknowledged by the university the applicant is now attending, or if the applicant has just graduated from high school, a scholarly achievement certificate over the entire school terms from the high school
- (c) The diploma or certificate of the high school from which the applicant graduated most recently
- (d) A letter of recommendation issued by a faculty professor of the university that the applicant is now attending, or if the applicant has just graduated from high school, issued by a homeroom teacher of the high school
- (e) A medical certificate (made out in the format of the Japanese government al foreign student scholarship requirement)
- (f) Other documents as required by the Selection Committee

2. Other required documents

(1) Category A1 & B1 & C

- (a) An application form and other required documents for Tokyo Japanese Language Education Center (former Kokusai Gakuyukai) (with seven (7) photographs)
*Please refer to the guidance of Tokyo Japanese Language Education Center.
- (b) An application form for Certificate of Eligibility (with two (2) photographs)
- (c) Copy of Passport
- (d) Five (5) photographs (3 for dormitory and 2 for ASJA Secretariat)

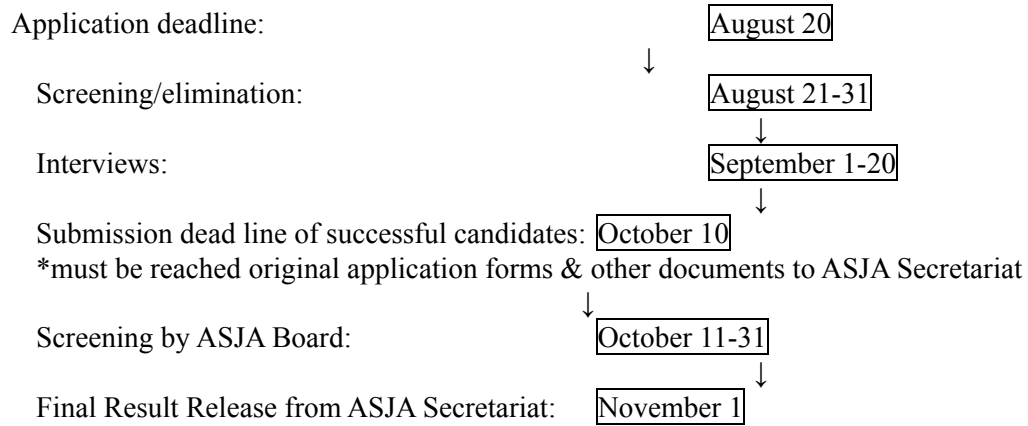

(2) Category A2 & B2

- (a) An application form for Certificate of Eligibility (with two (2) photographs)
- (b) Copy of Passport
- (c) Three (3) photographs

Time Schedule of application for ASJA Scholarship Program

□ In principle, the enrollment of ASJA Scholarship starts in April of a year. The enrollment for October may be given special consideration subject to availability of vacancy and other circumstances.

April Enrollment

October Enrollment
(For Vietnamese only, 2007)

